Assurant 5K to Support United Way of Miami-Dade

Warmed up and ready to run, a sea of hundreds of blue-shirted employees served as a poignant backdrop at the starting line of the fourth annual Assurant 5K as company President and CEO Alan Colberg presented a ceremonial check for $210,459.32 to Maria C. Alonso, president and CEO, United Way of Miami-Dade. That amount pushed the total funds raised over four years from the annual 5K event to $648,233 in donations, sponsorships and employee matches from the Assurant Foundation.

The 5,000-meter event held annually on Assurant's south Miami campus is produced by employee organizers and volunteers and supported by the Assurant Foundation. "We are so grateful to the entire Assurant family for running, walking and cheering for a stronger Miami," said Alonso. "The energy at the 5K is palpable and shows that Assurant's leadership and employees truly believe in working together to build a prosperous, healthy community."

Move For Hunger

"From move in to move out" is the commitment Assurant's multifamily housing business upholds for those who are covered by the company's renters' insurances products and services. That's why a new strategic partnership with Move For Hunger is proving to be a perfect match. With one in five children in the U.S. suffering from food insecurity, the need resonates now more than ever.

Assurant launched its relationship with Move For Hunger during the 2019 National Apartment Association (NAA) trade show. Hands-on engagement intensified with an "ArCANtecture" competition last fall during the Assurant annual sales conference -- with Feeding Florida receiving 4,500 pounds of food to feed 3,750 people in Miami-Dade. As COVID-19 took hold in 2020, an app-based "Miles4Meals" virtual fundraising and wellbeing campaign raised another $50,000 for Move For Hunger -- and ensured hearts beat stronger while showing the #AssurantCares spirit.
