Social Investment Spotlights

Peer Learning Cohorts – Newman's Own Foundation goes beyond the dollars by engaging grantees to accomplish more together than they can on their own. Small portfolios of nutrition- and veteran-focused organizations work to build relationships, share successes/challenges, enable leadership development, and brainstorm ways to collaborate, tackle complex issues, and move the needle in their respective fields.

Independent Media – Newman's Own Foundation has been funding public broadcasting for more than 35 years. Recent strategic grants aim to bolster high-quality journalism and programming in local communities, through investments in grassroots journalism, training for emerging journalists, and programming for independent media organizations.
