

Support today, new ways to engage, and Summit 2020

We have been thinking of your teams and responding to the many requests that have been pouring in, wishing everyone safety and wisdom during this time. We are here for you. How can we help?

CECP can support you and your team on your most pressing needs, today:

- Do you need benchmarking? Contact Insights@CECP.co for assistance.
- Companies are planning for what's ahead by taking our Giving in Numbers Survey, which will assist with data to sustain programs for the long-term. (email ayigit@cecp.co with questions)
- Do you need to understand what other companies are doing? Take our recent Pulse Survey, which we sent last Thursday (if you have not yet taken it, find it here). We will be sending more over the coming weeks. See early results.
- Do you need support in knowing where to focus? See our recent blog post.
- Do you need community more than ever? Reach out to us for a call and attend our virtual roundtables, which you can find on our events page.

Additionally, over the next few days, we will share more about the work we are doing with partners to support you and your teams in the weeks ahead.

We also have decided to move the 2020 CECP Summit: Strength in Solutions to a virtual experience. The CECP team is committed to bringing you the leading content, resources, and connections you need to serve your employees, communities, and partners in these uncertain times. With an innovative virtual format, anyone from your company can take part.

View our current site to see the type of content we will draw from, including speakers and the full agenda. We will update this site in the coming days to communicate about our plans and will be in touch to share more on our new virtual format. The experience will be more robust, reaching more of your colleagues, and digging deeper into the issues of the day. Thank you for your patience as we work through the details.

We look forward to connecting with you soon.

Be well and in partnership,

Kari
